MINISTRY WITH DISABLED PEOPLE TO SPONSOR PARENTS' EVENING AT UD

DAYTON, Ohio -- The Center for Ministry with Disabled People at the University of Dayton is sponsoring a presentation for parents of children and adults with mental retardation and developmental disabilities at 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 21, in UD's Kennedy Union Room 310.

Joseph C. Graf, a two-term board member of the Greene County Board of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities, will speak on estate planning for disabled children. He will discuss how parents of disabled children can leave an inheritance that will benefit their children without making them ineligible for public assistance from Medicaid or Social Security. The presentation will cover wills and trusts, the difference between luxury trusts and support trusts, and trust language that should be avoided.

Graf is a partner in the firm of Wolaver, Graf and Welch in Fairborn and serves as the Greene County public defender.

A snack and supervised movie will be provided for children and adults with mental retardation and developmental disabilities. The cost of the program is free, but reservations are requested by Nov. 18. Call Georgia Woods at (513) 229-4325 or (513) 433-7642.
